Annual Scientific Meeting 2024

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

November 2024

Venue: The Law Society, 113 Chancery Lane, London WC2A 1PL

MEETING THEME: Surgical Excellence in Cancer Care

4th-5th November 2024: BASO Annual Scientific

4th November 2024: BASO AGM for BASO members

Dear Colleague,

We are delighted to invite you to the 2024 BASO Annual Scientific Conference, which will be held at the prestigious venue of The Law Society in London on the 4th and 5th of November.

This year's theme, "Surgical Excellence in Cancer Care," promises to deliver an outstanding program featuring a distinguished line-up of national and international experts in the field of cancer surgery. Our esteemed guest speakers include Professor Irving Taylor, Professor Isabel Rubio (Spain), Professor Gill Tierney, Dr Rodrigo Perez (Brazil), Professor Andrew Beggs, Professor Richard Sullivan, Professor Oscar Traynor, Professor Peter Johnson, Professor Jane Blazeby, among many others.

The program will showcase educational and thought-provoking sessions, such as: Access to Cancer Surgery; State-of-the-Art Session: Recent advances in colorectal surgery; Keynote Talks: Competence and expertise: Navigating the challenges of an outcomes-based surgical curriculum; and HRT and Breast Cancer – what is the evidence; Insight: Where does the UK stand in comparison to the US, Australasia, and Europe?; NICE: Implementation Pathway for New Technologies; Debate: Should surgical oncology be a specialty in its own right?; Expert Panel: How to Improve Surgical Performance and Safety; Patient Perspective: Excellence in cancer care – a patient's experience

This year, we are excited to launch Dragon's Den, aimed at young researchers. This session is designed to encourage research applications from trainees, surgeons, and allied healthcare professionals (AHPs). The top three applications will be invited to present to a panel of experts who will offer real-time advice. For more information see page??

The conference is open to trainees, consultants, allied healthcare professionals, nurses, and medical students who wish to advance their surgical careers. Attendees will have opportunities to participate in symposia, debate sessions, roundtable discussions, and prestigious plenary award orations. Additionally, there will be ample opportunities to engage with keynote speakers and award recipients, providing an unparalleled networking experience.

Our aim is to create an environment that fosters interdisciplinary learning and the cross-fertilisation of ideas by bringing together experts from all cancer disciplines. We are eagerly looking forward to welcoming you to the 2024 BASO Scientific Meeting.

Professor Michael Douek
President, BASO~ACS
